HARLEM'S GOOD RACING.

There was a light attendance at Harlem Tuesday. The track was dry, but rough. It improved steadily during the afternoon.

The first race resulted in a lucky victory for the favorite, Barabbas. After getting shut off at the start and dropping to the rear, Mizoura could not get through until well into the stretch. Then he came with a rush and was beaten a nose. With an even break he could not have lost.

Skilman got away next to last in the second race, and, when a quarter had been run, apparently had no chance to be better than a tail-end. Clawson rated him nicely around the turn and rushed him through the stretch with a dash the others could not withstand. In the final sixteenth he caught Elsie Bramble, who cut out the work after the first few strides, and beat her half a length. He had to be many pounds the best horse to win.

At a mile Bonito cleverly disposed of Floronso. For three quarters Bounding and Henry Chance raced respectably. When actual racing began they could not keep within hailing distance of the other pair. Floronso appeared to be the winner a furlong away and brought Bonito to a drive. But he was a Spaniard in the contention at the end, and Bonito won like an American.

Louis Ezell's Espionage is a reliable filly. In the fourth race she conceded weight to all and won in clever fashion. Rutter came near losing the race after taking a presumably safe lead turning into the stretch. A hundred and fifty yards from the finish Espionage was loafing and along came Clawson with Santello. Rutter hustled Espionage, got her going again and had a length to spare at the end. He should have won easily. The surprise of the race was Barney Schreiber's Havel, which finished third.

Sutton ran kindly in the fifth race and won off by himself. In front of the judges' stand there was a jostle in which Sutton nearly fell and Banquo II, the favorite, was crowded back to last position. Usually after being bumped Sutton will not try. His notion ran the other way yesterday. Dorsey pulled him to the outside and steadied him around the turn and along the back stretch, where he gradually worked to the front rank. Just beyond the half he shot away from his company, and the race was over. Banquo got through on the turn only to see the leader draw away from him. Sunburst was an indifferent third, barely beating Chugnut and Jack of Hearts.

There was quite a delay at the post for the last race. Redskin, although very sore, was a strongly backed favorite. With Clawson up Monk Wayman was, by his stable following, believed to have a respectable chance and was backed accordingly. Diggs, Cherryflame and Monk Wayman were the advance guard to the turn for home. There Diggs retired and the favorite took third position. Shortly afterward Redskin faltered. Then Monk Wayman and Cherryflame began fighting for the lead. The Monk shook off Cherryflame and had all he could do to keep in front of Millie M, who came from the ruck. Redskin pulled up very lame in his right foreleg and Millie M showed a badly cut quarter, very nearly a cut-down.

Fred Foster went to St. Louis last night and took Dr. Sheppard with him.

Thursday will be Ladies day at Harlem.

Willie Martin arrived yesterday from New York. He went east to ride Ben Holladay, but owing to mislaid or misunderstood correspondence did not have the mount. Had he not considered himself under engagement to ride Ben Holladay he could have accepted an offer of the mount on Ornament. He says he does not intend to ride in big fields for ordinary events at Harlem or elsewhere this season, except for Pat Dunne.

Pat Dunne has bought of B. J. Johnston those two good racehorses Paul Griggs and David Tenny. There have been reports that David Tenny was on the crippled list. Pat says the horse is perfectly sound. Pat says: "If the horses run as well for me as they did for Mr. Johnston, I will be perfectly satisfied."

Dick Dwyer suspended E. Dorsey for two days, for spoiling starts with Diggs while at the post for the sixth race. Under Dorsey's license he is permitted to ride for B. J. Johnston, only. Under this suspension he can not ride for his stable.

B. J. Johnston bet $25 on Banquo II yesterday and tore up the ticket after Sutton had won. Speaking of Sutton he said: "I would not have bet on him if he had been 20 to 1. I can't afford to bet on him. If he were not a sulker he would be a great horse to have. I have not had a horse in my stable that could beat him if he would only run. Paul Griggs cannot beat him doing anything. Sulkers are bad horses to bet on when you have them. One must study to try to get all he can out of them. I used blinkers on him. I don't think they made a bit of difference. After having used them I had to keep on, because, if I sent him to the post without them, somebody would kick. I believe I'll make a jumper of him. One day at Sheffield, after being extra disgusted with Sutton, I put up "Smoky" Taylor with orders to go the full course, water jumps and all. The horse had never before faced a jump; but, instead of breaking his neck, he cleared every obstacle without touching a hair, and I have never been able to convince a lot of people who saw the performance that he had not been schooled a hundred times."

Ed Brown ("Brown Dick"), who developed Plaudit, says of that colt: "He is a better horse than his sire, Himyar, was. He is fast and lazy; won't do any more than you make him do; is the best feeder and traveler you ever saw, and knows more than most men. They said he couldn't go a Derby route because he was a Himyar, did they? Well, he can go as far as anybody's horse can. He can go out on the track and run a horse's eye out, and it don't make any difference to him whether he beats the horse the first eighth of a mile or the last eighth of three miles. He can beat him anywhere he likes." Pat Dunne supplemented this with: "A lot of people say Lieber Karl is no good because Plaudit beat him. Lieber Karl is just as good as he ever was. He can't beat Plaudit, but can beat all the horses he could beat before he met Plaudit."

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Greatland, the speedy brother of Marsian, Roslyn, etc., of which great things were expected at the outset of the season, has been very sick at Lexington since the close of the Louisville meeting. Reports from Lexington are to the effect that he is now rounding to again.

For disobedience at the post Jockey Morrison has been suspended for the remainder of the Oakley meeting. Gossip has it that Morrison having attained his majority declares he will ride no more for McGuigan.

Damien has been sold to Sydney Paget, subject to Dr. Sheppard's examination as to soundness. The intention is to school and race him over hurdles. Should he take kindly to the game, he has got speed enough to hold his own with the best in training over the sticks.

Winner—Ch. f, by Montana Regent—Dollkens. Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving hard. Pirate Judge is not of much account. He had no excuses and neither speed nor stamina. Flying Bird was off none too well on the outside. Was pumped out the first half mile. She has not much class. The winner acted like a fair filly. O'Connor and Dr. Sam closed strong. Scratched—Auntie Belle, 103; Mona B, 103; The Sheriff, 103. Overweights—Dr. Sam, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. g, 5, by Minting—Glide. Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving. Leigh started to pull Ed Farrell up at the start. It probably made no difference though as Skate galloped all the way. Ed Farrell was busy to beat Judge Steadman. The latter can win when placed properly. He finished strong. Scratched—Rowland Duete, 102. Overweights—Judge Steadman, 2 pounds.

Crocket and Gold Band had a bumping match at the head of the stretch which did not help either of them. Lady Callahan had a lot of speed. She is nearly ready. Madeline is fast improving. She is ready to win. Scratched—Helen H. Gardner, 109.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, or The Art of Making Money at the Race Track' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe, & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The New York Sun describes the eastern betting system which is likely to be in vogue at Washington Park. The system has stood all legal tests and came out of speculation at the Brooklyn track over last Saturday's racing:

"The first real signs of activity were noticed in the big betting ring, where 100 members of the Metropolitan Turf Association were receiving their allotted places from the managers. This occurred about 1 o'clock, and there was a great hustle. Bookmakers do not occupy the high boxes of olden days, but are compelled to sit on stools and chairs, surrounded by their clerks and money handlers. The only way they can show the odds on the different races is by means of little cards, along the edges of which are small strips of slate for the betting. It was so hard to make out the prices yesterday that when the first race had been run the bookies were almost mobbed by the bettors, who climbed all over them to get odds and also cash in. So much confusion prevailed that the pencilers more than once cast longing looks at the old boxes, which stood unoccupied along one side of the ring."

Ornament is doing very well since his easy victory in the Brooklyn. Most of the horses engaged in the big race were exercised Sunday and of some of them the Morning Telegraph says: "Ornament was out and trotted and cantered. The wiry chestnut was looking and feeling good. Ornament is undoubtedly one of the toughest and gamest bits of horseflesh seen in many a year. His present form is extraordinary when the hammering he received in his 2 and 3-year-old careers is taken into consideration. True, with the exception of Ben Holladay, the field he defeated on Saturday was rather ordinary, but he won so easily that it is hard to say how much he had in hand. It is to be hoped that he will keep all right, at least until after Suburban day, as it looks as if he may accomplish the unprecedented feat of placing both the big handicaps to his credit."

"Ornament's trouble is, however, rather serious. The inside suspensory ligament on his high foreleg is strained, and, practical horsemen know how serious this is. The horse is liable to break down at any time, especially should we have the much desired dry spell and the going becomes hard. But even in the event of Ornament going to the post for the Suburban in as good fettle as he is at the present time, I do not think that he will have any walkover. On a dry track Ben Holladay will run an altogether different race, although he would have a better chance of taking Ornament into camp were the distance a mile and a half."

"A weight for age race at that distance between Ornament, Ben Holladay and Bowling Brook would do more to elevate racing than a hundred sprinting affairs. I have an idea that over a distance Bowling Brook is the best horse in training. Taking a line through Mirthful's defeat of Sly Fox, and with Bowling Brook at least twenty pounds better than Mirthful, it looks exceedingly probable that the Morris horse is the best horse in training over a distance."

"Ben Holladay was also out and did walking and trotting exercise. The raking Hanover horse showed the effects of his race on Saturday, looking tucked up and a bit tired."

About the first thing Dr. Eichberg did after he had been added to the Fleischmann string at high cost was to develop a case of partial paralysis of the loins. He is now under treatment and is expected to recover shortly.

Ed Corrigan and his former trainer, Howard Williams, have "split up." Mr. Corrigan, it is said, will himself train the three which he has here. Williams will devote his entire time and attention to four or five which he himself has, including Bon Jour.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
